

COVID UPDATE 11/20/20

I have just been notified a Personal Care Associate has tested positive for COVID. This individual was tested outside of our community testing that was done yesterday and today. Those results have not returned. We are going RED and will be testing all Personal Care residents tomorrow. Linden Hall residents are not to be tested at this time. Information will be posted as it becomes available.